

All Systems Go: Scientific Games Launches New, Advanced Technology for Arizona Lottery

Tech Project Brings Most Exciting Draw Games Upgrade in Arizona Lottery's 45-Year History

ATLANTA – July 9, 2026 – Scientific Games announces that a new suite of systems technology is now powering the Arizona Lottery's sales across the state, headlined by exciting new draw games for players. The technology advancement features Scientific Games' Momentum ecosystem, including a central gaming system and retailer management system.

In addition to enhancing security and streamlining operations for the Arizona Lottery, the technology upgrade was designed to elevate the player experience, bring fresh energy to the Lottery's classic draw game lineup, and provide even more opportunities for retail partners to succeed.

"Our teams have been working hard behind the scenes with the Scientific Games teams, and we are thrilled to see this project come to life. The changes to our draw games will give our players bigger value, more ways to play and even more chances to win," said Alec Thomson, Executive Director of the Arizona Lottery. "Ultimately, the advanced technology ecosystem modernizes our operations and positions the Arizona Lottery for future growth."

The expansion of the Arizona Lottery's draw games portfolio includes:

- Massive upgrade to The Pick with an automatic multiplier on every single play, better overall odds of winning and a brand-new instant win add-on called The Pick PLUS
- Addition of a daily midday drawing for the Pick 3 game
- Addition of an all-new Pick 4 game with midday and evening drawings
- Addition of Powerball Double Play – an exciting add-on offering a second chance to win up to $10 million in a separate drawing immediately following the Powerball drawing

As part of the technology enhancements, Scientific Games upgraded gem | suite, the company's comprehensive software suite, to accommodate the Arizona Lottery's expanded draw game portfolio. gem | suite efficiently manages the Lottery's network of 3,600 retailers' licensing, communications and business intelligence that helps manage products in stores.

“As the Arizona Lottery’s systems technology partner since 2015, Scientific Games is focused on readying the Lottery for long-term sustainability through advanced systems and software, and exciting new products that engage players and drive proceeds to the good cause programs that benefit Arizonans,” said John Schulz, President, Americas & Global Instant Products.
