Scientific Games Awarded Connecticut Lottery Corporation Systems Contract Extension

ALPHARETTA, GA – April 3, 2013 – Scientific Games Corporation (Nasdaq: SGMS) today announced that the Connecticut Lottery Corporation has extended its Lottery Systems contract with the Company through May 2018. Scientific Games has held the Connecticut lottery systems contract since 1998, which includes a central system, approximately 3,000 terminals with touch-screen technology, in-store digital advertising display units and customer ticket checkers for the Lottery's retailer network, as well as a state-of-the-art satellite-based communications network.

"Our extension with Scientific Games provides operational stability at a competitive price, which is critical to the Lottery's revenue raising mission. We also appreciate Scientific Games' increased commitment to our supplier diversity initiative, a corporate social responsibility program designed to support local minority businesses," said Anne Noble, President and CEO of the CT Lottery.

As part of the extension agreement, Scientific Games will implement a complete refresh of all existing retailer terminals and supply an additional 50 terminals with ticket checkers and Lottery InMotion™. "Our retailers are the backbone of our success and our commitment to them will remain steadfast as we grow our portfolio," said Ms. Noble.

“We have had a long and successful relationship with the CT Lottery, and by working as partners we have been able to support the Lottery’s efforts to increase draw sales more than 18% since the current agreement began in 2007,” said Pat McHugh, President, North America Lottery Systems for Scientific Games. “We look forward to continued growth and success.”

The CT Lottery has a robust draw portfolio. Its daily numbers games rank 7th in the U.S. based on weekly per capita sales. The CT Lottery’s per capita spend on instant tickets is the 4th highest in the nation. The CT Lottery is a founding member of the consortium that launched the first ever New England Lottery Game, Lucky for Life.

Forward-Looking Statements

In this press release, the Company makes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements describe future expectations, plans, results or strategies and can often be identified by the use of terminology such as “may,” “will,” “estimate,” “intend,” “continue,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “should,” “could,” “potential,” “opportunity,” or similar terminology. These statements are based upon management’s current expectations, assumptions and estimates and are not guarantees of future results or performance. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated in these statements due to a variety of risks and uncertainties and other factors, including, among other things: competition; material adverse changes in economic and industry conditions; technological change; retention and renewal of existing contracts and entry into new or revised contracts; availability and adequacy of cash flows to satisfy obligations and indebtedness or future needs; protection of intellectual property; security and integrity of software and systems; laws and government regulation, including those relating to gaming licenses, permits and operations; inability to identify, complete and integrate future acquisitions; inability to benefit from, and risks associated with, strategic equity investments and relationships; failure of our Northstar joint venture to meet the net income targets or otherwise realize the anticipated benefits under its private management agreement with the Illinois Lottery; the seasonality of our business; inability to obtain the approvals required to complete the merger with WMS Industries Inc. ("WMS"); failure to complete the merger with WMS or, if completed, failure to achieve the intended benefits of such merger or disruption of our current plans and operations; inability to identify and capitalize on trends and changes in the lottery and gaming industries, including the potential expansion of regulated gaming via the internet; inability to enhance and develop successful gaming concepts; dependence on suppliers and manufacturers; liability for product defects; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and other factors associated with international operations; influence of certain stockholders; dependence on key personnel; failure to perform under our contracts; resolution of pending or future litigation; labor matters and stock price volatility. Additional information regarding risks and uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in forward-looking statements is included from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's periodic reports. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and, except for the Company's ongoing obligations under the U.S. federal securities laws, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
