INFORMATION WE AUTOMATICALLY COLLECT

We automatically collect information about the devices you use to interact with our website, official social media sites, or other online properties, collectively “Sites”. We may automatically collect your device identifier, web browser type and version, IP address, and browsing information collected through cookies and beacons. We may also automatically collect information about how you use the Sites, such as what you have searched for and viewed on the Sites. The information automatically collected may be associated with any personal information we hold about you.

We may collect certain information by automated means when you visit our Sites, such as how many users visited our Sites and the pages accessed. By collecting this information, we learn how to best tailor our Sites to our visitors. We collect this information through various means such as “cookies” and “web beacons.”

Cookies. Like many companies, we use “cookies” on our Sites. Cookies are pieces of code placed on your devices when you visit certain websites. We use cookies to tell us, for example, whether you have visited us before or if you are a new visitor, and to help us identify features of the Sites in which you may have the greatest interest. Cookies may enhance your online experience by saving your preferences while you are visiting a particular website.

Most web browsers will tell you how to stop accepting new cookies, how to be notified when you receive a new cookie, and how to disable existing cookies. Please note, however, that without cookies you may not be able to take full advantage of the features and functionality of the Sites.

Web Beacons. Certain pages on our Sites may contain “web beacons” (also known as Internet tags, pixel tags, and clear GIFs). These web beacons allow third parties to obtain information, such as the IP address of the computer that downloaded the page on which the beacon appears; the URL of the page on which the beacon appears; the time the page containing the beacon was viewed; the type of browser used to view the page; and the information in cookies set by the third party.

IP Addresses. An IP address is a unique identifier that certain electronic devices used to identify and communicate with each other on the Internet. When you visit our Sites, we view the IP address of the device you use to connect to the Internet. We then use this information to determine the general physical location of the device and understand the general locations of our website visitors. We also use this information to enhance our Sites.

Our Sites may use Google services such as Google Analytics from time to time. For more about how Google collects and processes data, please see Google’s privacy policy and their information at www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect, hold, use and disclose personal information to operate our business and comply with our legal obligations. This includes assessing your application to invest with us, managing your investment, providing investor services, identifying you, maintaining and updating our records, responding to lawful information requests, protecting our property, services, and legal rights, dealing with suspected unlawful activity and misconduct, facilitating acquisitions and potential acquisitions of our business and communicating and managing our relationships with our investors and other stakeholders.

We may not be able to do these things without your personal information. For example, we may not be able to communicate with you.

We are required to make limited details of current and former securityholders available to members of the public on request. The other third parties to which SG Inc may disclose personal information, include:

- our related companies and other members of the Scientific Games Group
- your representatives (e.g. your broker)
- service providers
- billing and mailing houses
- delivery contractors
- IT service providers
- superannuation funds
- share registries

- superannuation and payroll providers
- video monitoring providers
- medical and worker's compensation providers
- criminal record and background checking services, and information brokers
- global watchlists and official registers
- regulatory authorities and the ASX.

Third parties to which we disclose personal information may be located in other countries, including in the USA, Europe and Asia.

MARKETING MATERIAL

A related purpose for which SG Inc collects personal information may be marketing by SG Inc of products or services, including promotions, solicitations and offers relating to SG Inc and the products and services of our businesses, affiliates and business partners.

If you have received marketing material from SG Inc and you wish to stop it, you can contact the PrivacyCompliance Officer at the address set out below.

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

SG Inc stores personal information in a range of paper-based and electronic formats:

- (a) Paper storage security. SG Inc protects the security by various means, including:
  - locking personal information and restricting access on a need to know basis
  - using access control measures such as keyed access, security alarms and surveillance cameras to deter and detect unauthorised access.
- (b) Computer and network Security. SG Inc protects the security by various means which include:
  - access control through usernames and passwords
  - limiting access to shared network drives to authorised staff
  - systems usage and access monitoring, including data download restrictions.

ACCESS TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

If you want access to your personal information held by SG Inc, please put your request in writing and clearly identify the personal information you seek access to. All requests for access should be addressed to The Privacy Compliance Officer.

Depending on the circumstances, SG Inc reserves the right to charge you a reasonable administrative fee.

In some instances, SG Inc may be required or permit to decline requests to release personal information. In these instances, SG Inc may provide you with the explanation regarding the personal information, rather than direct access to the information, or reasons for declining the request.

CORRECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

SG Inc will take reasonable steps to correct personal information that is inaccurate. You should notify SG Inc if your personal information changes.

COMPLAINTS

If you wish to make a complaint to SG Inc about a possible breach of privacy, please provide full details of your complaint in writing and send it to the Privacy Compliance Officer.
