

Poland's National Lottery Extends Partnership with Scientific Games Following Strong Growth

ATLANTA – April 25, 2024 – Scientific Games and Totalizator Sportowy, the national lottery in Poland, have extended their current agreement and will continue bringing the company's world-leading instant scratch games to players in Poland. Over the past three years (2020 to 2023), sales of scratch games in Poland have grown 39%. Totalizator Sportowy is among the top-performing instant game lotteries in Europe.

"We've chosen to extend our instant games agreement with Scientific Games so that we can continue to responsibly grow this product category and generate proceeds for Polish sport and culture," said Katarzyna Woznica-Borkowska, Manager of Instant Products for Totalizator Sportowy.

Most recently, Scientific Games collaborated with Totalizator Sportowy on the I Love Big Cash game produced with the company's advanced Dimension technology which enhances the play experience with three-dimensional, reflection-at-different-angle refractions above and below the game graphics.

Scientific Games has provided instant games to Totalizator Sportowy for more than 20 years. Currently, the company provides instant games to 114 government-regulated lotteries around the world, including 50 European lotteries.

"Following an impressive several years of growth, this extension signifies the trusted relationship with Totalizator Sportowy that we have established across two decades," said Kevin Anderson, VP of Global Strategic Accounts for Scientific Games. "We look forward to continuing our work to drive meaningful growth for the instant product category in Poland through strategic portfolio planning and more innovative games for players."

With products that generate more than 70% of global instant game retail sales, Scientific Games is the world's largest instant games creator, producer and services provider, and the primary provider to nine of the Top 10 performing instant game lotteries in the world (La Fleur's 2024 World Lottery Almanac).
